

Ludwig Lusser

Biography

Ludwig Lusser, born in Innervillgraten, East Tyrol, in 1969, studied at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna (organ with Michael Radulescu.) He taught at the Universities of Music and Performing Arts in Graz and Vienna until 2006.

Since 2006 he has been the organist of the St. Pölten cathedral where he also teaches at the local Diocesan Conservatory of Church Music. Ludwig has been developing a diverse concert career as an organist and improviser since 1989.

In 2009 his complete recording of Johann Sebastian Bach's Clavierübung III. Theil was released by Gramola/Vienna.